2017-2018

FREE Special Needs Parent Support Group

Join us for an informal, monthly group of parents and guardians of children with special needs. Support each other through the highs and lows of parenting and advocating for your student at school. You'll also receive monthly updates on the law and your child's rights.

The facilitator is a special education attorney who has worked as a teacher and social worker. Guest speakers will present current information on topics of your choice and answer your questions.
