

On Wednesday, September 27th, 2017 the Greater Attleboro Recovery Network (GARN) will be sponsoring a candlelight vigil to remember those in our community lost to opiate addiction and/or suicide and to recognize those who have been impacted.

The vigil will take place at 6 pm in the Sanctuary of Murray Unitarian Universalist Church 505 North Main Street in Attleboro, MA.

Immediately following this vigil, the public is invited to attend the first ever "You Are Not Alone" Drop-In Center in Fellowship Hall of Murray Church. Light refreshments will be served.

Ongoing - the "You Are Not Alone" drop-in clinic and resource center will be open to the public:

From 5:30 – 8 PM on the
Last Wednesday of every month
In Murray Unitarian Universalist Church's Fellowship Hall.

The drop in clinic and resource center will feature tables of local mental health and addiction resources. Clinicians from Arbour-Fuller, Community Counseling of Bristol County (CCBC), and other agencies will be on hand to assist those seeking treatment.

Contact Carrie Ballou at carrie.ballou@uhsinc.com or Sgt. Steve Beaudet at sbeaudet@attleboropolice.org for more information.